

NATIONAL MARITIME SAFETY AUTHORITY

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

The National Maritime Safety Authority (NMSA) is responsible for promoting, complying with and maintaining world class maritime safety standards in Papua New Guinea consistent with legislation and commitments under National Legislation and International Conventions in order to facilitate a safe, efficient and environmentally responsible shipping sector for stakeholders in government, industry and the community. Under the mandate, NMSA ensures a fully functioning and effective network of aids to navigation; availability of high quality and up to date navigational charts; that vessels meet the safety standards required by law and international commitments; ensuring seafarers' competency through vigilant examination and certification, and coordinating maritime responses to distress calls and monitoring and controlling ship-sourced pollution. The NMSA now wishes to fill the following positions:

Search And Rescue Coordinators – Maritime Rescue Coordination Centre

Job Objective

Respond to distress calls and coordinate maritime search and rescue operations.

Principal Accountabilities and Services Standards

Among the core accountabilities the successful incumbent will:

Decide and take responsibility, calculated risks, initiative and generate activity; apply and use technical expertise and advanced information and communication technologies; analyse information, probing for clarity, produce sound and innovation solutions, make judgements and think systematically; follow procedures and instructions keeping to safety and legal guidelines; set objectives, plan, establish contingencies, manage time, resources, people and monitor progress; show command, professionalism and credibility.

Person Specification and Experience

The successful person for this position must meet the following requirements:

Skills

Advance computer skills; exceptional managerial skills; high level interpersonal skills including tolerance; excellent negotiation skills; very good analytical and problem solving skills; excellent communication, including presentation skills; ability to think outside the square; very good report writing skills.

Knowledge

Demonstrated knowledge or ability and good understanding in maritime operations and navigation, IAMAR manuals, THE SAR Convention 1979, Radios and GMDSS, vessel monitoring systems, CMS, read and plot charts.

Qualifications

Minimum qualification is Mate Class 2 and or certification in maritime or aviation search and rescue

Experience

Minimum of 5 years or previous experience in search and rescue, military or emergency response

Apply Now before CLOSE OF BUSINESS on 21 September 2018

The National Maritime Safety Authority offers genuine career opportunities with attractive remuneration package for the right candidate. The successful candidate we are seeking will have relevant qualifications and experience in the role; have commitment, takes initiative and have personal integrity.

If you have the necessary skills and experience and meet the requirements for the positions and are interested, submit your application to:

The Manager Human Talents/Resources, National Maritime Safety Authority, PO Box 668, PORT MORESBY, NCD; Papua New Guinea Level 3, Defens Haus Building. Contact us: Email: jobs@nmsa.gov.pg or apply online at www.nmsa.gov.pg.

ONLY SHORTLISTED APPLICANTS WILL BE CONTACTED

Authorised by:
Paul M Unas - General Manager/CEO
National Maritime Safety Authority